TASTING NOTES

WHITE WINE

T'Gallant Cape Schanck Pinot Grigio Mornington Peninsula
From the Mornington Peninsula, this wine is crisp and zesty with citrus and Nashi pear notes. The perfect accompaniment to a light salad or grilled seafood.

Seppelt The Drives Chardonnay Grampians
Stone fruits with a citrus acidity, crisp with a light oak finish. Recommended with a creamy pasta or light seafood dish.

RED WINE

Jacobs Creek Double Barrel Shiraz Barossa Valley
Plum, blackberries and vanilla with an added layer of complexity from finishing in former Scotch whisky barrels. A fattier cut of steak will complement nicely such as a Scotch fillet.

St Huberts The Stag Pinot Noir Yarra Valley
Easy drinking light bodied red with cherry-berry flavours. Quite versatile, can pair well with roast lamb or a piece of salmon and many dishes in between.

BEER & CIDER

Little Green Cider
Big apple flavour, sweet and crisp. Goes well with a spicy dish or something sweet.

2Bros Payday Pale Ale Moorabbin
2017 Winner of AIBA Champion Australian Pale Ale. Citrus and stone fruits, refreshing and light on the bitterness. Try it with battered fish and chips.
